

Participant:

Block 1

In general, how does the narrator feel for adults?

- (a) He finds them cruel and doesn't think highly of them
- (b) He doesn't really have an opinion
- (c) He thinks they take too much care of "important things" and doesn't think highly of them
- (d) He thinks they are giving the best advice and has a good opinion of them

After the Little Prince accepts the drawing made by the narrator, he worries that the sheep may be missing something. Enough to ?

- (a) Of light
- (b) Water
- (c) Grass
- (d) Heat

What knowledge does the narrator find useful when getting lost in the night?

- (a) Know how to recognize different countries in the world
- (b) Know how to draw a boa constrictor
- (c) Know how to recognize different streets in Arizona
- (d) Know how to recognize different trees in China

Why was communication difficult with the Little Prince?

- (a) He spoke a foreign language
- (b) He was dumb
- (c) He wasn't asking enough questions
- (d) He did not answer questions directly

If you had been shown this drawing before you knew the story, what would you have said it represented?
(Give a word)

How does it feel to imagine a sheep in this box?

Have you ever been in a boomerang situation, where you and another person saw two different images in the same drawing (object, situation)? Were you the adult or the child?

Page 2

Block 2

What subject is the narrator concerned about after presenting the story of the discovery of the asteroid B-612?

- (a) Infants
- (b) Astronomy
- (c) Mathematics
- (d) Adults

What happens when a baobab grows on a planet that is too small?

- (a) The planet falls from the sky
- (b) The planet is breaking up
- (c) The planet catches fire
- (d) The planet is growing

How are the sunsets on the Little Prince's planet compared to Earth?

- (a) Prettier
- (b) Brighter
- (c) Less frequent
- (d) More frequent

What does the Little Prince do with his chair to see the sunsets at home?

- (a) He climbs on the chair

- (b) He knocks over the chair
- (c) He moves the chair
- (d) He hides under the chair

What do baobabs represent in your opinion?
Do baobabs rather evoke positive or negative emotions for you?

Do you associate sunsets with sadness or melancholy? What other landscapes do you associate with you to sadness?

(Does that make you sad or do you rather look for that kind of scenery when you are you already sad?)

Page 3

Block 3

How were the first flowers on the Little Prince's planet?

- (a) Complicated
- (b) Simple
- (c) Rainbow color
- (d) Thorny

How can the attitude of the Little Prince be described after the discussion about the thorns of flowers?

- (a) Indulgent
- (b) Remote
- (c) Calm
- (d) Affectionate

Why does the Little Prince water the flower?

- (a) He thought she looked faded
- (b) She asked him
- (c) He was thirsty himself
- (d) She threatened him

What were the volcanoes used for on the Little Prince's planet?

- (a) To send signals to other planets
- (b) To provide light during the night
- (c) To injure intruders
- (d) To reheat breakfast in the morning

Why do you think the flower chose to mention tigers? (Is he
Which animal evokes the flower: tigers or panthers?
represent something?)

"... you should never listen to flowers"

What does this sentence mean to you?

According to you, doesn't the prince mean the opposite: "you must always listen to the flowers"?

Block 4

How does the king of planet 1 react when the Little Prince yawns in his presence for the first time?
times ?

- (a) He first forbids the Little Prince to yawn, and then he repeats the prohibition to him
- (b) He first forbids her to yawn, then he orders her to yawn
- (c) He immediately orders the Little Prince to yawn again
- (d) He ignores yawning

What characteristic do people like the man who inhabit the second planet share, according to the narrator?

- (a) They only speak by insulting others
- (b) They hear nothing but name calling
- (c) They only speak by praising others
- (d) They hear nothing but praise

What does the drinker do when the Little Prince arrives on his planet?

- (a) He's destroying his liquor bottles
- (b) He sits among his liquor bottles
- (c) He's looking for alcohol
- (d) He is stacking his liquor bottles on top of each other

What is the drinker ashamed of?

- (a) To be irresponsible when he is drunk
- (b) To drink in general
- (c) To lose a bet
- (d) Spending too much money on alcohol

Do you identify with one of the three people the little prince has met?

(king, conceited, drinker)

Who among these three characters do you think is the most lonely?

(A choice)

Page 5Block 5

According to the Little Prince, what is the difference between the things he has on his planet and the things the businessman owns on planet four?

- (a) Unlike the businessman, we can take care of things on our planet
- (b) Unlike the things of the businessman, his business is more expensive
- (c) Unlike the things of the businessman, his affairs are intangible
- (d) The Little Prince says he can converse with things on his planet

What is the effect of street lights when they are turned off?

- (a) It hurts the Little Prince
- (b) It hurts flowers and stars
- (c) It puts the Little Prince to sleep
- (d) It puts the flowers and the stars to sleep

What does the Little Prince offer to the lamp lighter?

- (a) To sit on his planet
- (b) To walk on his planet
- (c) To leave his planet
- (d) To turn on and off his light more often

Why is the lamp igniter not ridiculous?

- (a) Because he takes care of something other than himself
- (b) Because he does his job well
- (c) Because he earns a lot of money
- (d) Because he takes care of serious things

You can reread what the Little Prince said at one point ("It's useful for my volcanoes, and it's useful Participant: Block 1 In general, how does the narrator feel for adults? (a) He finds them cruel and does not to my flower, that I have them. But you are not useful to the stars "). Do you agree with the little one prince? Do you see a connection with our contemporary reality?

Was Lighter's Planet Acceleration a metaphor, how would you interpret it?

Page 6

Block 6

How does the geographer justify his ignorance of his own planet?

- (a) He is injured
- (b) He is not an explorer
- (c) He doesn't think it's necessary
- (d) He doesn't want to learn anything about it

What statement from the snake surprised the Little Prince?

- (a) That humans talk a lot
- (b) That humans are lonely
- (c) That there are no sheep on Earth
- (d) That humans never talk to people from other planets

What belief expresses the flower that the Little Prince meets on Earth?

- (a) There are many men on Earth
- (b) There are only a few men on Earth
- (c) There are many flowers on Earth
- (d) There are only a few flowers on Earth

How does the Little Prince find planet Earth after having climbed the mountain?

- (a) Peaceful and serene
- (b) Interesting but dangerous
- (c) Fun and funny
- (d) Dry and boring

Do you consider yourself closer to a geographer or an explorer?

Do you think the snake is benevolent or malicious?

Page 7

Block 7

After having met the roses on Earth, how does the Little Prince feel?

- (a) Enthusiastic and invigorated
- (b) Sad and betrayed
- (c) Angry and pissed off
- (d) Calm and meditative

What state of mind characterizes the fox after the Little Prince has tamed it?

- (a) Enthusiastic
- (b) Angry
- (c) Nostalgic
- (d) Happy

What does the Little Prince see differently after taming the fox?

- (a) His planet
- (b) The narrator
- (c) Yourself in comparison with the fox
- (d) Its flower compared to roses on Earth

Who on the train knows what they're looking for?

- (a) Adults
- (b) Children
- (c) Babies
- (d) The driver of the locomotive

Who do you think, the Little Prince or the rose, tamed the other?

You can reread what the fox said ("We only know the things we tame," says the Fox"). Do you agree with him?

Page 8Block 8

How does the Little Prince react to the merchant's offer?

- (a) He thinks it's too cheap
- (b) He thinks it's too expensive
- (c) He thinks it's perfect
- (d) He thinks it is largely unnecessary

The Little Prince and the narrator agree on one thing. Which ?

- (a) That airplanes are a good means of transportation
- (b) That the Earth is very arid
- (c) That water is the most basic human need
- (d) That things are made beautiful by the invisible they hide

What does the narrator admire the most about the Little Prince?

- (a) His well-thought-out answers
- (b) Its ability to survive without water
- (c) His love for the flower
- (d) The fact that he lives on such a small planet

Why was the Little Prince in the desert when the narrator met him?

- (a) It was the anniversary of his descent to Earth
- (b) He no longer loved the Earth
- (c) He needed to water his flower
- (d) It was the anniversary of the birth of his flower

You can reread what the Little Prince said. ("He said to me simply: - Water can also be good for the heart... ") What do you think he means?

Read this passage and tell me what you think this water symbolizes for the narrator. ("This water was much more than food. She was born from walking under the stars, from the song of the pulley, from the effort of my arms. ") (One word)

Page 9

Block 9

What was going to happen with the Little Prince in the evening?

- (a) He was going to die
- (b) He was going home by boat
- (c) He was going to drink
- (d) He was going to meet new friends

Choose the best description of the Little Prince's attitude when he walks towards his death.

- (a) Scared and anxious
- (b) Determined and sad
- (c) Intrigued and delighted
- (d) Contemplative and serious

Six years after their meeting, what does the narrator think about?

- (a) In the days he spent with the Little Prince
- (b) How much the Little Prince loves his sheep
- (c) How much the Little Prince loves his flower
- (d) What is happening on the planet of the Little Prince

At the end of the book, what does the narrator think about?

- (a) That we will never see the Little Prince again
- (b) That the know-how of adults makes them superior to children
- (c) That children and adults are equal
- (d) That imagination and belief make children superior to adults

What is the Prince afraid of when he talks to the snake?

Why do you think the author drew a flower next to the Prince?
What does the flower represent in this drawing?